The Queenes Maiestie geueth all maner her subiectes to understande, that of late at Bruges in flauanders, the Commissioners sufficiently au thorised on the part of her Maiestie, and of the Kyng of Spayne her good brother, haue suspended, proroged, and continued the treatie lately had there for the matters of Entercours of marchaundize, vntyll her Maiestie and the sayde Kyng, or eyther of them, shall by theyr letters declare to the other, that the prorogation of the sayde treatie, shall cease and take ende. Duryng whiche tyme, and vntyll the sayd declaration shalbe made, as afores is sayde, by eyther of the prynces, it is also accorded by the sayd Commissioners, that nothing shalbe chaunged concerningynge the agreementes so; thentercours made heretofore betwixt her Maiestie, and the Duchesse of Porma of the lowe Countreyes, the. xviii. of December, the yere of our Lord God. 1564. but that the same shal remayne sure and sygne, and in that state wherin hytherto the same hath ben. And that the subiectes of both sides shalbe honestly, frendly, and fauourably treated. And that it be provided to haue the Shreas kept free from pyrates. And ys any thyng shalbe attempted, contrary to the agreementes, the same shalbe soorthwith remedayed, accordançyng to the lawes and thentercours. And ys both the prynces or any one of them, shall declare theyr pleasure to haue the prorogation of the treatie to ceasse: In that case it shalbe lawfull so; the Subiectes of eyther Prince, duryng the space of sixtie dayes next following the knowledge of the said declaration geuen to the other Prince, to depart freely with theyr goodes, wares, and marchaundizes, & to dispose of them at their willes. All which agreementes were also ordred by the saide Commissioners to be notified and proclaimed in the Cities of London and Indwarpe the. xx. of July. For per sourmaunce whereof, her Maiestie geueth al her Subiectes to understande the contentes of the premisses, to the intent that the entercours and traffike of marchaundize may be continued betwixt her Maiesties dominions, and the lowe Countreyes of the sayde kyng of Spayne her good brother, and both theyr subiectes, as hytherto they haue. Whiche her Maiestie wylleth to be obserued, vntyll her Maiestie and the sayde kyng. or eyther of them, accordançyng to the agreementes aforesaid, shall declare their pleasures in any thyng to the contrary.

Seuen at our Manour of Saint James, the. viii. day of July, the. viii. yere of our raigne,

GOD save the Queene.
